

26 February 2018

Rev 0.1

Position Announcement
Communications Engineer

Position Requirements:

- Experience in designing and implementing communication systems for RF, microwave, fiber optic, and copper mediums required
- System-level design ability required; a synopsis listing prior system design experience requested
- Experience designing supervisory control and data acquisition (SCADA) systems desired
- Experience with GE-MDS products desired
- Experience in using propagation prediction tools such as EDX or NetScout desired
- Experience in tower siting requirements including FCC and FAA filings desired
- Experience in FCC licensing desired
- Established skills in Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Project and Visio required
- Expert skills in reading and writing in English is required
- Skills in writing technical reports; periodical articles or white paper examples highly desired
- Railroad and/or utility industry experience highly desired
- Four-year degree in Electrical Engineering desired; technical school, military / or industrial on-the-job training and experience will be considered in lieu of a four-year engineering degree
- Professional Engineer license highly desired
- Project management experience highly desired; PMP certification is a plus
- Presentation skills for both technical and non-technical audiences
- Travel approximately 20%
- Willingness to work in the Philadelphia area; relocation assistance negotiable

CWA is an equal opportunity employer. Salary will be commensurate with the candidates experience and skills and includes our standard benefits package, which will be made available to potential candidates. Candidates are requested to send their resume/CV, including past job history, experience, schooling, training courses, references, sample documents and/or reports they have authored.

All CWA employees must successfully pass a drug screening test prior to their first day of employment.

Please respond to JOBS@CLIFTONWEISS.COM with your resume and any other item you wish to submit for consideration of employment.

Applicants only; no agencies or recruiters please.